ALLEN—ARTHUR.

Mr. Harry S. Allen, aged 42, plumber, 12 East Ninth street, and Miss Florence E. Arthur, 11½ East Ninth street, Cincinnati, were married yesterday in this city by Rev. C. F. Evans of the First M. E. Church, South.

MEYERS—SCHAFFER.

At 12 o'clock yesterday, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. Schaeffer in East Second street, their daughter, Miss Christine, became the wife of Mr. William Mont Meyers.

It was a pretty home wedding, attended by the families and a number of friends of the young couple. The Rev. Dr. John Barbour of the First Presbyterian Church performed the ceremony.

Miss Schaeffer is one of Maysville's handsome and accomplished young ladies. Her dress was a lovely creation of pearl etamine over silk, particularly becoming to her.

Mr. Myers, whose home is at Greenup, is a valued employee of the C. and O. Railway. He was for some time located in this city but is now stationed at Dover, where he and his bride will be at home after July 1st.

The many rich and elegant presents received by the young couple attest the very high regard in which they are held.

Dinner served in courses followed the ceremony, and from 8 to 10 o'clock last evening a reception was given in honor of the bride and groom.

Among those to attend the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. F. P. Haldy of Cincinnati, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Meyers and son, Frank, of Greenup, and Mrs. Achsah Branch and son Russell of the county.

HOLTON—HANNA.

Mr. James Holton and Miss Bettie A. Hanna of Dover were married in this city yesterday by Elder Houston of the Church of the Disciples, to which denomination both parties belong.

This union is the culmination of 25 years' courtship, and all friends of the parties shower congratulations and good wishes upon Mr. and Mrs. Holton.

The bride is a most lovable character. She has been identified with the Public School of Dover for two decades last past, and it is no mere set expression to say she is the epitomized embodiment of all the virtues which give beauty and attractiveness to woman.

Mr. Holton, for the past 15 years of his life, has been a prominent railroad contractor, and

At Darkness and Dawn Show the Volcano and Night and Morning are the best.

All city teachers and others interested in the meeting of the Kentucky Educational Association in this city next week are asked to meet at the High School Building Saturday afternoon at 3 o'clock. W. T. BERRY.

THE CARNIVAL COMPANY AND ITS SHOWS.

Among the many real Meritorious Shows now exhibiting in our city, is one located at corner Market and Second street called Darkness and Dawn—The Volcano. This show deserves more than passing comment. The scenic and electric spectaculat presented here is one of the most beautiful and astounding pieces of work ever shown in this state. The transformations in the different scenes are indescribably grand and mystifying. The lecture given at each exhibition of Darkness and Dawn by a lady is also a masterpiece of eloquence and touching in its pathos. When such exhibitions as this come to our town give them a liberal patronage. Take your family to see the volcano.

Mr. Elmer Cooper, a nephew of Mrs. William Sprosberg of Commerce street, was married at Cadiz a few days ago to Miss Ora Wilson.

The saloon license in Maysville is $300 a year. There are 17 saloons. When the license was $150 a year, there were over 30 saloons. If the license was placed at $5 a year, how many saloons do you think there would be? Don't all answer at once.

THE Police Judge in Louisville must believe in pauper labor. A few days ago he fined three Union strikers $15 each and put them under $300 bond to keep the peace. They had only exercised their inalienable right to "slug" some "scabs" who were working in the places they had vacated.

In Elizabethtown the City Council has raised the saloon licenses from $500 per year to $1,000, and the six saloons of the city will probably be reduced thereby to three or four. A similar action on the part of the Maysville Council would probably reduce the number of saloons here to a dozen; and yet some folks can't see where "high license" does any good.

If Governor BECKHAM would immortalize himself, he will call a special session of the Legislature; and then if the Legislature would earn the gratitude of the sensible people of Kentucky, it will amend the State Capitol Bill, so as to allow the Commission to choose a proper site for the new building. To tear away the historic old Capitol will be an outrage; to erect the new one on the site of the old will be a crime. May the LORD help the Governor—and hammer a few grains of sense into the legislators.

UNION LABOR ORDINANCES.

Louisville Courier-Journal.

At the instance of Union Labor organizations the General Council of Lexington recently passed, with only one dissenting vote, an ordinance requiring that all contracts for supplies for the various city departments and all other such contracts be awarded only to persons or firms employing Union labor. This ordinance has been vetoed by the Mayor because of an opinion by City Solicitor Clay holding it to be unconstitutional, and the veto was sustained by the Council at a meeting Saturday night.

Mr. Clay, citing a list of cases, says that the Courts of the various states have with "singular unanimity" decided against the validity of such ordinances as this. He argues that it violates Section 1 of the Fourteenth Amendment of the Federal Constitution, which reads—

"No state shall make or enforce any law which shall abridge the privileges or immunities of citizens of the United States; nor shall any state deprive any person of life, liberty or property without due process of law, nor deny to any person within its jurisdiction the equal protection of the laws."

The word "state," Mr. Clay says, has been held to include all municipal corporations created by the state. "Liberty has been construed to mean not simply freedom from restraint, but the right to labor, or to pursue one's calling or business upon terms of absolute equality with all others. 'Equal protection of the law' means not merely equal protection so far as personal security is concerned, but equal protection in all the rights and privileges of citizenship."

Any law, therefore, that abridges these privileges or interferes with these rights, is in violation of this constitutional provision.

He further holds that the ordinance violates Section 3 of the Kentucky Bill of Rights, which provides that "All men when they form a social compact are equal; and no grant of exclusive emoluments or privileges shall be made to any man or set of men, except in consideration of public services."

He argues also that "it is contrary to public policy, in that it is class legislation, discriminative in its character, and tends to stifle competition and create a monopoly."

In making this point he says very forcibly—

"Manifestly, if the General Council has the right to restrict competition so far as the public supplies and public contracts are concerned to those only who employ Union labor, it would have the same right to pass the same character of ordinance for the benefit of non-Union labor, if at any time the friends of non-Union labor should gain control of the General Council. And if at any time the majority of the members of the General Council should be members of the Presbyterian Church, or the Methodist Church, or the Baptist Church, or the Catholic Church, or of any other Church, or if the majority of them should belong to the Masons, or the Oddfellows, or the Elks, or any other Order, they would have the same right to pass a like ordinance for the benefit of those employing members of their particular Church, denomination or Order. The result would be that the laws of the city, instead of being enacted for the benefit of all the inhabitants of the municipality equally and impartially, would favor only that class of our citizens who happened to be in political power at the particular time."

The question here raised is one of some local interest, as only the other day an action was brought to test the validity of a similar Louisville ordinance.

The Japanese Government has ordered thirty locomotives from German firms. The contract price is about $3,700 each.

HEALTHY MOTHERS.

Mothers should always keep in good bodily health. They owe it to their children. Yet it is not an unusual sight to see a mother, with babe in arms, coughing violently and exhibiting all the symptoms of a consumptive tendency. And why should this dangerous condition exist, dangerous alike to mother and child, when Dr. Boehme's German Syrup would put a stop to it at once? No mother should be without this old and tried remedy in the house—for its timely use will promptly cure any lung, throat or bronchial trouble in herself or her children. The worst cough or cold can be speedily cured by German Syrup; so can hoarseness and congestion of the bronchial tubes. It makes expectoration easy, and gives instant relief and refreshing rest to the cough-racked consumptive. New trial bottles, 25¢; large size, 75¢. For sale by Henry W. Ray, Postoffice Druggist.

Yesterday Was a Dull One All Along the Line

Parade Today, and Crowds For Balance of the Week

Our country cousins were not in evidence yesterday in such vast numbers as on opening day of the Carnival, yet the fun and hilarity continued just the same.

The Haymakers had the day all to themselves and what they lacked in numbers was fully made up in lung power and amusing antics.

It is at night that the Carnival is seen to the best advantage.

The streets are crowded with jolly souls out for a good time, and with the laughter and shouts of the sight-seers and the spellers at the various shows with their set speeches, there is enough going on to give variety and spice.

Printers' Ink knows what it is talking about. Poor printing is bad, but it's worse than a blank. A business man's stationery or booklet is like a traveling man—if the neat, well-dressed and to a point, the first impression is good and you chances of doing business on the strength of it are good.

The Haymakers Band visited the peaceful little village of Aberdeen across the river yesterday, and not since the memorable occasion during the Civil War when the young ladies of that town came over to this side and demanded the surrender of the city from Mayor Trussell, has there been such a commotion among its residents as did this grotesque musical organization create. IMMENSE TOW

The Powerful Sprague On Her Way to Pittsburgh With Empties

The largest tow of empty coal craft ever taken up the Ohio river by a single boat, and the largest towboat on the rivers of the Middle West, passed up yesterday.

The boat which is handling this tow is the

Sprague of the Monongahela Consolidated Coal and Mining Company.

In front of the boat are 24 coalboats, with a capacity of 26,000 bushels each, and 17 barges with a capacity of 13,000 bushels each when loaded, covering in all a space of about eight acres.

The craft is being taken from New Orleans to Pittsburgh for reloading and to be then shipped South again.

The Sprague is the largest boat ever built for use on a river. She is 321 feet long and is equipped with every convenience to be found on an ocean-going vessel.

On her last trip to New Orleans the Sprague towed 56 coalboats of 1,000 tons each. This carge is equal to 56 trainloads of 30 cars each.

Henry Payne, better known as "Roscoe," had a stroke of apoplexy about 6:30 this morning while sitting in a chair in Market street. He was taken in a wagon to his home in Smoky Hollow where he now lies in a comatose state, with chances of recovery very much against him. He is 55 years old, has a wife and seven children.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Green are hospitable entertainers, but they would like to know who their guests were at supper last evening. After their own regular evening meal they came down to the city to take in the sights. Returning later they were somewhat surprised to find the gasoline stove in the kitchen burning, and their dining room table set with dishes from which a couple had evidently enjoyed a supper, after cooking it. The parties were evidently of the many hoboes now guests of the city.

Master Burgess Everett, who has been quite ill with erysipelas, has about recovered.

The lecture room and children's room of the Christian Church are being papered and painted.

Colonel Edward Myall is supervising the job.

Terilda Green, a good old colored woman,

who died Monday at her home on the Fleming

pike, was buried yesterday in the Maysville

Cemetery.

Howard Rosser, Superintendent of the County

Infirmary, desires to re-establish the custom of the first rank and class. He is now director of a musical organization of his own.

Mr. W. R. Cooper, who was raised at Washington, now a resident of Ohio, was in the city yesterday for the first time in 29 years.

James Rice, a C. and O. brakeman, living at Catlettsburg, fell under a train at Leon, Carter county. One foot was cut off below the knee. He was taken to the hospital at Huntington.

Howard Rosser, Superintendent of the County

Infirmary, desires to re-establish the custom of the first rank and class. He is now director

of a musical organization of his own.

Colonel Edward Myall is supervising the job.

Terilda Green, a good old colored woman,

who died Monday at her home on the Fleming

pike, was buried yesterday in the Maysville

Cemetery.
